The background of the slide is a dark, moody abstract composition. It features numerous horizontal and diagonal streaks of light, ranging from soft, ethereal glows to sharp, bright lines. Interspersed among these streaks are several out-of-focus circular light spots, or bokeh, which vary in size and intensity, adding a sense of depth and movement to the overall aesthetic. The color palette is primarily composed of dark greys, blacks, and various shades of light blue and white, creating a futuristic and sophisticated feel.

A glowing yellow lightning bolt strikes a dark sphere, symbolizing potential and energy. The lightning bolt is composed of many thin, branching lines that create a sense of movement and power. The sphere is dark and appears to be the point of impact, with the lightning bolt's energy radiating outwards. The background is black, making the yellow light stand out prominently.
